

Linux Commands

mkdir

Definition: Creates a new directory.

Usage/Formula: `mkdir [directory_name] mkdir -p directory/directory`(For parent directory) Examples:

- `mkdir projects`
- `mkdir /home/user/documents/new_folder`
- `mkdir -p /home/user/movie/horror`

touch

Definition: Creates an empty file.

Usage/Formula: `touch [file_name]`

Examples:

- `touch notes.txt`
- `touch /home/user/scripts/run.sh`

rm

Definition: Removes files or directories.

Usage/Formula: `rm [options] [file_or_directory] rm -r [directory_everythin_in_it]`

Examples:

- `rm file.txt`
- `rm -r old_folder`

cp

Definition: Copies files or directories from one location to another.

Usage/Formula: `cp [options] [source] [destination]`

Examples:

- `cp file.txt /home/user/backup/`
- `cp -r folder1/ folder2/`

mv

Definition: Moves or renames files and directories.

Usage/Formula: `mv [source] [destination]`

Examples:

- `mv file.txt /home/user/documents/`
- `mv oldname.txt newname.txt`